PROFILE

I am a public policy professional and social psychologist with 15 years of professional experience. Currently, I am working in the areas related to substance abuse prevention, health equity, intersectoral action, and the social determinants of health.

During my career, I have held leadership positions in numerous non-profit organizations to promote health and well-being. I have led and managed projects for non-governmental organizations in Finland and later in multicultural environments in Canada and Europe.

Currently, I work as the Executive Director of the Finnish Association for Substance Abuse Prevention EHYT. In my role as a consultant, I have provided expert advice to think tanks and international organizations, such as the World Health Organization.

My contributions to the field of public policy include over 80 articles, books, reports, and professional presentations. In Finland, I have published several books and reports covering themes such as health inequalities, health promotion, and social exclusion. Internationally, I have written book chapters to volumes published by Ashgate Publishing/Taylor & Francis and Canadian Scholars' Press.

Other activities

- I have given career life mentoring for undergraduate and graduate students of social sciences (2010-2015). I was invited as a mentor by the student association of social psychology majors.
- I received private mentoring in photography (Jan-Aug, 2010) instructed by an award-winning photographer Gregory Talas (CEO / Creative Director at Kodiak Gallery in Toronto's Distillery District).
- I was part of the group which collected one of the most comprehensive qualitative data on poverty in Finland (Everyday Experiences of Poverty, "Arkipäivän kokemuksia köyhyydestä"). We collected qualitative data (writings, ranging in length from 1 to 20 pages, on poverty) from 850 participants through a writing contest. The project has produced three books (2007, 2009 & 2012), which I have co-authored, a theater play, a dozen seminars held at the Finnish parliament, policy recommendations, and several academic research projects (including 23 finished Master's theses)
<http://www.koyhyyskirjoitukset.org/>
- Our book based on the "Everyday Experiences of Poverty" project was donated to the all members of the Finnish Parliament in the fall 2007. Currently, our anthology is used as a textbook in three different universities in Finland. The data has been archived by the Finnish Social Science Data Archive and is being used by 20 Finnish social science researchers https://services.fsd.uta.fi/catalogue/FSD2413?tab=description&study_language=en
- My thesis "Masennus ja serotoniiniselektiiviset lääkkeet" [Depression and Selective Serotonin Reuptake Inhibitors] was awarded in the "Viksu" science contest arranged by the Academy of Finland in 2000. The nationwide contest was open to all Finnish high school students. A Finnish portal on mental health published the thesis in 2002. <http://mikkonen.kapsi.fi/ssri/>

Interests

Organizational and cultural activities, literature, various sports, music, and cinema.

In my spare time I am an avid photographer (see my portfolio at <http://juhaphotography.net>).
